This is a list of Farm Connex Stops. Please reach out to stop locations directly if you are interested in working with them.

Farm Connex increases Vermont farmers' and food producers' viability and access to wholesale markets. Our team is a local food logistics and transportation partner that helps with all aspects of self-distribution; aggregation, fulfillment, delivery, and storage. We service locations in the first and last mile of our region, connecting our producers to a larger base of regional consumers. Unlike traditional distributors, Farm Connex does not purchase products, which allows our producers to maintain relationships with their customers. Farm Connex shares and supports our local farmers' and food producers' passion for their products, communities, and the local food system.

Farm Connex allows producers and farmers to maintain direct relationships with their end customers and keeps food dollars in the local economy while reducing total food miles.

Farm Connex is a program of the Center for an Agricultural Economy, a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting rural communities and working landscapes by building a more interconnected food system in Vermont.

FAQ'S

WHY WORK WITH FARM CONNEX?

Farm Connex allows producers to maintain the relationship with their end customers. Shipping with Farm Connex keeps food dollars local and reduces food miles.

WHAT SERVICES DOES FARM CONNEX PROVIDE?

Farm Connex is a local food logistics and transportation partner that helps with all aspects of self-distribution: aggregation, fulfillment, delivery, and storage. We service locations in the first and last mile of our region, connecting our producers to a larger base of regional consumers.

HOW DO I GET ON A FARM CONNEX ROUTE?

Reach out to farmconnex@caevt.org and request our New Stop Request form. All new stop requests are evaluated based on our current route structures.

WHERE DOES FARM CONNEX GO?

We work with over 80 + producers and make over 400 + stops per week to grocers, farmstands, food co-ops, general stores, restaurants, hospitals, and schools across Vermont and parts of New Hampshire.

IS FARM CONNEX A NON-PROFIT?

Farm Connex is a program of the Center for an Agricultural Economy, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.

ANY QUESTIONS?

Please don't hesitate to reach out to us, we are happy to help and we always love to hear from our community!

FARM & FOOD BUSINESS RESOURCES

Center for an Agricultural Economy

PLANNING FOR PROFIT THIS SEASON

If you're a farm or food business in Vermont and you'd like CAE as a partner in planning for profit, please reach out!

Program enrollment is available to those earning most of their income from farming or a food business that uses mostly Vermont produce (maple, eggs, dairy, fruits, vegetables, or grains).

Types of Projects Offered:

- Planning cash flow
- Product pricing and margins analysis
- Preparation for financing
- Farm transfer planning
- Establishing SOPs and best practices for financial record keeping
- Developing a marketing plan

Our planning services are ideal for any business that is looking to make a change or is looking to take their financial understanding of their business to the next level.

Business planners, Daniel Keeney and Sarah Damsel, are ready to support you with your business goals!

Reach out to advising@caevt.org to learn more.

Center ^{for an} Agricultural Economy

The Center for an Agricultural Economy supports rural communities and working landscapes by building a more interconnected local food system in Vermont. Learn more about our programs below.

CAE cultivates community by responding to our shared human need for physical and social nourishment. Our Community Connections program is a combination of events, resources, and services that are designed with and for farmers, food producers, partners, and neighbors to nourish shared vitality. Community Connections helps build greater collective support and resilience through shared learning, food justice, and community organizing.

Place-Based Education helps youth connect to food through community and to community through food.

Food Justice recognizes food as a human right. Through collaboration and community organizing, we aim to make food accessible, build local resiliency, and eliminate the stigma around food access.

CAE strengthens the agricultural economy by providing farmers and food producers a wide array of industry resources and information, access to capital, and income-generating opportunities through adaptive enterprises.

The Vermont Farm Fund is a community-based credit model in service of a community-based food system.

The Vermont Food Venture Center is a hub for food processing and innovation, where food businesses can rent commercial kitchens to test new products or equipment, scale up their production, and add products to their lineup. It provides the space and resources that allow businesses to grow.

Farm and Food Business Resources leverages industry tools and insights to support farmers and business owners as they manage the complexities of starting and sustaining successful farms and food enterprises.

Just Cut is instrumental in making local produce accessible in K-12 schools, colleges, hospitals, prepared food kitchens, and co-op kitchens across Vermont and parts of New Hampshire.

Atkins Field is 15 acres of field, forest, wetland, and gardens maintained for public use by CAE. Atkins features a pavilion, a community orchard, trails, a bicycle pump track, historic granite industry relics, and open space for recreation.

The Food Hub is a groundbreaking, climate-forward facility which supports Vermont farmers, food producers, and community members. A critical piece of community infrastructure, the Food Hub is home to Farm Connex and uses cutting-edge technology to minimize environmental impact, and it features a community gathering space and CAE offices.
